JAPS UNWILLING.

The Government Will Not Allow Russia to Have Free Hand in Manchuria.

CAN'T CONSENT TO ITS OCCUPATION

Manchuria Was Restored to China by Japan at the Instigation of the European Powers.

The Diplomatic Corps of the Japanese Capital Have No Hope of a Peaceful Settlement of the Pending Difficulty.

London, Oct. 31.—The Morning Post Saturday says it understands that Japan is by no means prepared to acquiesce in the suggestion that she give Russia a free hand in Manchuria in exchange for a Japanese free hand in Corea. Japan contends, says the Morning Post, that the two questions are entirely separate, that Corean independence has already been secured by convention and that as Manchuria was restored to China by Japan at the instigation of European powers, she naturally can not consent to its occupation by Russia.

The correspondent of the Daily Mail at Kobe quotes the Hoshi Shimun of Tokio to the effect that the diplomatic corps, of the Japanese capital, have no hope of a peaceful settlement of the pending difficulties.

Even Baron Shibusawa, at a meeting of the Bankers' union, advocated war, although the interest of the bankers is logically in the direction of peace.

Paris, Oct. 31.—The Gaulois Saturday morning affirms that French diplomacy, which was not unconnected with the recent sudden improvement in the relations of Russia and Japan, proposes at Count Lansdorff's request to exercise conjointly with Great Britain a firm though friendly pressure on the Japanese government for the purpose of obtaining a speedy and amicable settlement of the difficulties between Japan and Russia. The paper adds that instructions to this effect have already been forwarded to M. Harmand, the French minister at Tokio. The Gaulois further says that M. Lansdorff, in exchange for M. Delcasse's promise of support in the Balkan question, has undertaken that Russia shall morally support France in negotiations concerning questions pending in Africa. The paper finally declares, though under reserve, that the two ministers have discussed a certain plan concerning Abyssinia in the carrying out of which Italy, France and England will each play an active part.

THE MAD MULLAH.

The Present Prospects of His Victory Are Very Bad.

Rome, Oct. 31.—News from Somalia gives assurances that the present prospects of victory for the Mad Mullah are bad. Great Britain has taken steps looking to decisive action for the annihilation of the Mullah's power. Italy, co-operating with Great Britain, has ordered the gunboat Volturno and the cruiser Cristo Colombo to reinforce its Red Sea squadron.

At the same time Emperor Menelik, of Abyssinia, has been urged to expedite the attack of his troops on the Mullah's forces, thus catching him between the fires.

THE CITY OF ST. LOUIS.

The Steamer Burned to the Water's Edge Opposite Carondelet.

St. Louis, Oct. 31.—The steamer City of St. Louis, which arrived Thursday from New Orleans, her first trip in three years, was destroyed by fire at 11 o'clock Friday night, while moored at the ways opposite Carondelet, in the southern portion of the city. The bartender, known only as "Jimmy," is reported to have perished, and Cabin Watchman William Stammer and Watson were seriously burned. The steamer formerly belonged to the Anchor line and was 20 years old. Her present valuation was about $15,000. Watchman Stammer discovered the fire in the engine room and gave the alarm. But before engine companies could arrive the steamer was in flames and burned to the water line.

THE FARMERS' SOCIETIES.

A Call Has Been Issued For a Meeting in Chicago December 1.

Chicago, Oct. 31.—The advisory board, created at the convention of farmers' societies held in Chicago in September, 1903, has issued a call for a meeting in this city December 1. The purpose is to increase the membership. The object of the board is to bring about concert of action among all the farmers' societies and organizations "to secure equitable prices for all farm products, and to guarantee to consumers food products at a fair price and not loaded down by trust profits." The call requests every society to send two or more delegates. The governors are to be asked to send delegates to represent the different states.

HALLOWEEN FESTIVITY.

Two Girls Were Instantly Killed Near Elizabeth, Pa.

Elizabeth, Pa., Oct. 31.—Miss Maude Albon and Miss Agnes McGahey, aged 19 and 16 respectively, were instantly killed Friday night while en route to a halloween festivity in the neighborhood by a Pittsburgh, Virginia & Charleston train.

The two girls, with Hilda McGahey, an elder sister of Agnes, had donned their halloween masks in a spirit of fun and drove directly in front of the train, the masks interfering with their vision at the crossing.

Agnes McGahey was beheaded, her friend, Miss Albon, was badly mangled, and Hilda McGahey escaped unscathed.

SENT TO AN ASYLUM.

An Insane Man Wanted to See President Roosevelt.

Washington, Oct. 31.—Edward Tanner, 33, a native of Switzerland and a crank, tried to see the president Friday, but he did not get far beyond the doors of the executive offices before his condition was discovered. He was taken to police headquarters and later to St. Elizabeth's insane asylum. His delusion was that he was being continually pursued by airships. He thought the president would make them stop bothering him. Tanner said he had a wife in Memphis, Tenn., but that he came direct from Northern Montana to see the president. He has been in the city since Monday.

BANKERS IN PERIL.

Passenger Train in Which They Were Homeward Bound Was Wrecked.

THE DEED OF TRAIN WRECKERS.

Engine and Four Cars, With a Portion of a Bridge, Went to the Bottom of the Creek.

Bankers' Car Was the Only One Not Derailed—Thirty or More Trainmen and Passengers Were Injured, Some Fatally.

Pueblo, Col., Oct. 31.—By an act of train wreckers east-bound Santa Fe passenger train No. 6, known as the Colorado-Chicago "flyer," in which was one car filled with eastern bankers homeward bound from California, was derailed at 1:30 o'clock Friday morning at Apishapa creek, 35 miles east, and, breaking down the steel bridge, the engine and four cars following, plunged to the bed of the creek, where they were piled in a mass of wreckage. Thirty or more trainmen and passengers were injured and that none was killed outright is regarded as almost miraculous.

Among the injured are: Harold Kolberg, Middlesboro, Ky.; J. F. McGill, Washington, D. C.; J. L. Reinhardt and Mrs. J. A. Reinhardt, Owensboro, Ky.

The wrecked train was made up at Denver Thursday evening and at Pueblo the car Del Roso, in charge of A. S. Kimberly and carrying 18 eastern bankers, was attached to it. The train was bowing along at a speed of 50 miles an hour as it approached Apishapa creek, between Mangola and Fowler.

At the west end of the bridge the rails spread, derailing the engine, and when it struck the bridge one span 100 feet long went down. The engine, two baggage cars and a chair car and a coach rolled over on their sides to the creek bed, a distance of about 15 feet. Fortunately little water was running in the creek at the time.

One Pullman stopped with the forward end projecting over the embankment. The bankers' car was the only one in the train that was not derailed.

When the engine rolled over Engineer Walker was pinned under his cab, and he was immediately enveloped in a dense cloud of steam. Some time elapsed before he was rescued by other members of the crew with the assistance of some passengers.

Engine Walker and others who were seriously injured were placed in the Santa Fe hospital there and the remaining resumed their eastward journey with the exception of some women, who were suffering from the shock to their nervous systems.

An investigation showed plainly that the spikes had been pulled from three rails.

But for the accident of a hot box on the express car a large amount of money would have been in the safe of the wrecked train and this, it is believed, was the plunder the desperadoes hoped for. Valises were rifled by the robbers during the excitement following the wreck.

The express car in which, according to report, money was being transported, was left at Colorado Springs in a later train.

CHAS. GAVIN ARRESTED.

He Is Charged With Robbing a Denver Bank of $30,000.

It Is Responsible For Another Killing From Ambush.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 31.—Another feudal outbreak is reported from Breathitt county, when Jim Pimperon waylaid and instantly killed John Garrett at Wilhurst, about ten miles west of Jackson. The only cause assigned is a grudge which has existed for several years between the two men and the members of their respective families, and it is feared further trouble will follow.

Capt. Longmire, in charge of the provost guard at Jackson, dispatched a detail of soldiers to arrest the murderer, but he has not been found, and is believed to be hiding somewhere in Morgan county.

Convicted Man Was the Walking Delegate of Housesmiths and Bridge-men's Union Local No. 2.

He Was Charged With Extorting Money From Contractors Under Threat of Keeping Them From Continuing Work on Buildings.

New York, Oct. 31.—For the second time within two months Samuel J. Parks, walking delegate of Housesmiths' and Bridgemen's union, local No. 2, was convicted of the crime of extortion in the court of general sessions. It took the jury just 12 minutes during which time they took two ballots, to agree on the guilt of Parks in extorting $500 from the Tiffany studios, a firm of contractors, under the threat of keeping them from continuing work on buildings.

Parks claimed that this money was a fine levied by his labor union. Later the fact developed that Parks had been disloy

DEMOCRATIC PARTY.

This is the way to vote the Straight Democratic Ticket.

TALK is good but one ballot in the box is worth a hundred talks.

THE Democratic party has been beaten in Ohio for several years by the stay-at-home vote. The stay-at-homers often cause defeat in other States. Don't be numbered with that class next Tuesday, but vote early and vote the ticket from Beckham down.

ELECTION OFFICERS, ATTENTION.

A special request is made to the Democratic Inspectors in the various precincts of the county to telephone the BULLETIN the returns from the election next Tuesday evening just as soon as the count is completed. The public will be anxious to have complete returns in Wednesday's issue of the paper, and in order to tabulate the figures it will be absolutely necessary for us to have the vote on Tuesday evening, and at the earliest possible moment. The BULLETIN has telephone connection with all the precincts except Orangeburg and Plumville, and the Inspectors in those two should send the returns in as early as possible.

A prompt compliance with this request will be esteemed a special favor.

URGE CHURCH UNITY.

Episcopal Bishops Act—Overtures Suggested to Methodists and Presbyterians
Looking to Union.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 24.—The feature of the session of the Pan-American conference of Episcopal Bishops to-day was the adoption of a resolution "recommending a more kindly attitude toward the other Protestant bodies, with a view to possible union with them."

The resolution suggests that the governing bodies of the church lay before the Presbyterian General Assembly and the Methodist General Conference the contents of a paper read by the Coadjutor Bishop of Montreal on the points of agreement and disagreement between Protestant churches.

The resolution asks these Protestant communions seriously to consider the subject of church unity, with a view to "arriving at intercommunion and possible union of them and us, through the composition of some of the differences and the recognition that others do not constitute sufficient reasons for creating or continuing a rupture."

Rev. H. T. Musselman will lead the men's meeting at Y. M. C. A. Sunday at 3 p. m.

HARBESON AND SLATTERY.

Splendid Tribute From Fleming's Leading Paper to Nominees in This Judicial District.

Flemingsburg Times-Democrat

The Democrats have a strong team in their candidates for Circuit Judge and Commonwealth's Attorney. Any man who would take the pains to contrast the men on the two tickets would have no difficulty in choosing between them, politics aside.

Judge Harbeson is a Judge of experience on the bench, of strict integrity and high character. His public record is without a stain and in private life he is a most estimable gentleman.

Thos. D. Slattery, the nominee for Commonwealth's Attorney, is a young lawyer of excellent character and fine legal knowledge. His personal habits are splendid and as a specimen of fine physical manhood he stands at the head. He is well qualified for the place he aspires to, and will make a prosecutor who will not bring the blush of shame to the face of anyone by his manifest incompetency at the prosecutor's desk.

These are the men put forward by the Democratic party for the suffrages of the voters of this Judicial district, and we urge upon every right-thinking man the importance of electing these men. As to their opponents we have nothing to say.

MAKING RAPID PROGRESS.

Kentucky Building is Already Half Completed—Will be Furnished by the New Year.

Reports from World's Fair grounds at St. Louis are most encouraging as to the progress being made on the Kentucky State Building. The contractors announce that it is sixty per cent. completed. It is entirely under roof and plastering has begun. Indications now point to its completion about Christmas. It will be turned over to the Directors of the Kentucky Exhibit Association between the New Year and February 1, when active preparations for furnishing this "New Kentucky Home" will begin. At the meeting of the Directors of the Association last week, an additional appropriation of $500 for four hundred extra electric lights, making in all about six hundred, was voted. This will easily make the Kentucky Building one of the most brilliantly illuminated on the ground.

During the past week the fund being raised for the erection of the Kentucky Building and display of the State products and resources at the exposition in St. Louis next year, climbed to $31,000. The latest subscriptions include several contributions from banks in different parts of the State, brewers, the Louisville Tobacco Warehouse Co. and business firms and corporations generally.

SAVAGE VS. BULGER.

Opinion of Appellate Court Affirming Above Case.

In affirming the above case, the Court of Appeals says:

First—Wills—Mental Capacity of Testator.—On appeal from the probate of a will, by which the testator, a colored man, left his property to a woman whom he had recognized as his wife from the time they had begun living together during her slavery, though never married to her, and to his children by her, the contention of the contestant, his sister, that he was not mentally capable to make a will cannot be sustained in the face of the consistent and rational provisions of the will itself and of the testimony of all the witnesses who saw him on the day of the execution of the will to the effect that he was mentally capable.

Second—Undue Influence.—Considering the natural desire which the testator would have to leave his property to the woman whom he recognized as his wife for years and to his children by her, testimony of two or three witnesses as to some expressions on the part of the woman that she expected and desired such a will as was made by the testator is not sufficient to support the charge of undue influence.

Third—Execution of Will.—It appearing from the evidence that the testator, being unable from physical weakness to sign his name, made his mark to the writing which was drawn by another, and that the witnesses who were present at the time he made his mark signed their names as witnesses in his presence, one of them, who was unable to write his name, signed by mark, there was a substantial compliance with the provision of the statute in the execution of the will, and no express acknowledgment was necessary.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

FOR MEMBER OF BOARD OF EDUCATION.
We are authorized to announce J. P. WALLACE as a candidate for member of the Board of Education from Fourth ward at the November election.

C. C. DEGMAN, Republican candidate for State Representative, will appreciate your support and influence at the polls Nov. 3, 1903.

The Proposed Constitutional Amendment.

While the amendment has the unqualified approval of candidates for Governor of each of the leading political parties and of thinking men, regardless of party affiliations throughout the whole State, and no organized opposition to its adoption exists, we have encountered here and there, more or less antagonistic sentiment, some of it based upon unworthy prejudice, but more of it due to various misconceptions of the true scope and effect of the measure.

The apprehension expressed by some of our citizens that the measure will operate to increase taxation in our cities and towns on real estate is groundless, because the revenue derived from municipal taxation of personal property used in business is relatively small as compared with revenue from taxation of real estate, and as much, if not more, revenue will be derived from the taxation of it under the license system than is now obtained by ad valorem taxation of it.

The adoption of the amendment will not exempt business personally from municipal taxation, but will open up a way under which it can be taxed for municipal revenue only in a manner to encourage the expansion of our commerce and manufacturers, and to enhance the value of our real estate.

The fears entertained by some of our people that the amendment can be used to increase the bonded debt of our cities, or to increase the limitations of their tax rates, as fixed by their charters, are entirely without foundation, because these things are governed by provisions in the Constitution and statutes of our State in no way changed or repealed by the amendment upon which you are to vote.

The people of the great State of Ohio, lying on the northern border of the central and eastern portions of our State will vote next Tuesday upon an amendment of the same character as ours, but of much broader scope in that it takes the whole question of State, county and municipal taxation out of its Constitution and commits it to the Legislature. Our information is that the Ohio amendment will, without doubt, be adopted.

If we, by any mischance, should fail to adopt ours, what chance will Kentucky have as against Ohio, in securing the location of new manufacturing establishments?

There is no class of our people but will be benefited by its adoption—real estate owners, in the enhanced value of their property; merchants and manufacturers in increased volume of their business; workingmen in greater wages; farmers in enlarged home markets for their produce. Lower State and county taxes in the early future, soon to be followed by lower municipal taxes. Progress and prosperity for all, under the establishment of Home Rule in local affairs.

Your Cloaks and suits are beautiful! Nothing like them anywhere. Such expressions of pleasure we hear daily. The fact is that if our sales keep up at the same rate till November we will have sold as many Cloaks and Suits by the first of November as we did the entire season last year, and last year was the largest season in the history of this store. SIX WEEKS SPENT IN NEW YORK with Cloak and Suit houses has proved a wise act. The styles here are correct. The prices are right—and right at the start—marked in plain figures so that you will be treated as well as your neighbor. THIS IS THE ONLY DRY GOODS HOUSE IN MAYSVILLE THAT IS NOT AFRAID TO MARK ITS PRICES IN PLAIN FIGURES. The wise shopper does at first what others do at last—comes to Merz Bros.

A Charming and Delightful Affair Was the Reception by Mrs. Leigh W. Robertson Wednesday.

Mrs. Leigh W. Robertson's reception on Wednesday afternoon was a most charming and delightful affair. The hours were from 2 until 6 o'clock, during which time the rooms were comfortably filled with the invited guests. The Nomad Club, of which the hostess is a member, was especially in evidence, invitations having been sent to the entire membership of that organization.

Flowers in harmony with the furnishing of the rooms were lavishly used in decoration, the dining room being especially attractive in a profusion of yellow chrysanthemums with background of green. The buffet table from which refreshments were served was built high with a pyramid of flowers, with an immense center piece of cloth of gold thread bordered with holly and flowers at its edge. A myriad of candles added luster to the scene, and brought into prominence the beautiful gowns worn by the women.

The predominance of pink in the decorations of the drawing room made it a fit setting for the hostess in her beautiful gown of pink and white silk. She was assisted in receiving by Mesdames James A. Johnson, Charles Duke Pearce, Hiram Pearce Chenoweth, John Mullins Hunt and Thomas Arbuthnot Keith, while Misses Harriet and Bessie Johnone assisted in the dining room.

A WOMAN'S CREDENTIALS

To society are signed by her shoes. No fashionableness of costume will cover a neglect of footwear. But with the feet and hands properly encased, she cannot go far wrong. How disappointing, after approving the details of a lady's dress, to spy a pair of rusty, dirty, unstyle shoes. It takes away all the charm. The one thing that such a woman needs is the style of a shoe. Make this your passport and escape all criticism.

WARMLY WELCOMED

Large and Enthusiastic Crowd Greeted Beckham and Party.

Speeches by Kentucky's Brilliant Young Governor, Congressman James, Judges McQuown and Peake.

It was 3:05 o'clock Friday afternoon when Governor Beckham and party reached Maysville on his triumphant tour of the State. The delay was due to the meetings at Vanceburg, Greenup, Ashland and Louisa during the earlier hours of the day.

From the Cincinnati Enquirer staff correspondent, Mr. Samuel Carey, a most conservative gentleman and writer, it was learned that large crowds had greeted the Governor at all the points named. While the crowd here was not up to expectations, yet it is estimated that from 2,000 to 2,500 people were in waiting, and the welcome extended Kentucky's handsome and brilliant young Governor was most enthusiastic.

On the arrival of the train, the Governor and party were at once escorted to the south porch of the station, his appearance being greeted with cheers. The crowd extended almost out to Second street. It was an admirable location for an out-door speaking, as all could see and hear with ease.

Gov. Beckham, notwithstanding the fact that he has been on the stump almost continuously for a month or more, showed no marks of fatigue, and was in splendid voice. He spoke about ten minutes, first thanking the crowd for its cordial greetings, and then devoting the rest of his time to a denunciation of the slanders Col. Belknap and other Republicans sought to heap upon Kentucky.

Republicans, he said, had slandered the judiciary, the juries, the courts and Mr. Belknap had gone so far as to say the Commonwealth was not a fit place for our sons and daughters. The Governor closed with a strong plea to his audience to resent these Republican slanders at the polls next Tuesday.

A MURDER MYSTERY.

The Body of An Unknown Man Found in the River at Des Moines.

Des Moines, Ia., Oct. 31.—While dynamiting the river for the body of Miss Lilly Cole, who committed suicide by jumping from the Walnut street bridge last Tuesday, the police not only brought up the body of the girl, but that of an unknown man. There was nothing on the body by which it could be identified and the remains were so badly decomposed that recognition was impossible. The skull was crushed and the police believe the body may be that of a wealthy stockman named Jones, who disappeared in this city some time ago, and who was thought to have been murdered for his money.
